▲ Neue Sofa - Laura Kirar

Laura Kirar maintains a reputation for creating elegantly refined spaces and objects. Her product design emphasizes the appeal of classic proportions and unique modern forms, revealing her incisive understanding of the decorative arts. "I am always searching for things that are elegant, beautiful and of high quality and the thing that is just right. The thread that runs through my work is this very thoughtful attention to detail. This is why it was so wonderful for me to come and work with Baker, because they really do pay attention to detail, they make an extra effort to get all of that right and make sure that the curves are accurate because those little things really do make the difference." - Laura Kirar
